DO no. 1/9/2014-FI (Pt. X) (C-69241)

Dated 3rd July 2017

Dear Shri Kumar,

Please refer to your DO no. J-11011/01/2016-RH, dated 8.6.2017, regarding the intimation from the Government of Jharkhand that in Bokaro and Dumka districts, conversion of Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana (PMJDY) accounts to normal accounts in respect of Bank of India could not be done due to software problems and that such conversion has been blocked temporarily by the System Administrator at the HQ level. This was in the context of ceiling of deposit/withdrawal of accounts opened under PMJDY.

2. The matter was taken up with the Bank of India. The bank has replied to the Government of Jharkhand, Rural Development Department, vide letter ref no. HO:BU-FI:SP:2017-18, dated 1.7.2017, a copy of which is enclosed. The bank has clarified that the withdrawal restriction on PMJDY accounts was effective in the wake of a post-demonetisation RBI communication dated 29.11.2016, and the same has since been withdrawn (with effect from 13.3.2017, vide RBI circular dated 8.2.2017, copy of which is enclosed). As such, there is no restriction currently on withdrawal of money from KYC-compliant Basic Savings Bank Deposit (BSBD) accounts opened under PMJDY. A non-KYC compliant BSBD account, referred to as a "small account", can also have unrestricted withdrawal if made KYC-compliant.

3. The bank has further clarified that there are no system issues in this regard, and that the issue was not represented in the right perspective by the bank's LDM Office—Seraikehan Kharsawan to local Block officials / other officials concerned, and they have since been apprised that there are no issues in this regard. Further, the bank has apprised its controlling offices in the concerned district (Dhanbad, Bokaro and Jamshedpur) to be in touch with the local Government officials to extend necessary cooperation.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

All Banks

Dear Madam / Sir,

Removal of limits on withdrawal of cash from Saving Bank Accounts

Please refer to our circular DCM (Plg) 2905/10.27.00/2016-17 dated January 30, 2017 on the captioned subject.

2. In the wake of withdrawal of Specified Bank Notes (SBNs) since November 09, 2016 Reserve Bank had placed certain limits on cash withdrawals from Savings / Current / Cash credit /Overdraft accounts and withdrawals through ATMs. On a review of the pace of remonetisation, Reserve Bank partially restored status quo ante by removing the restrictions on cash withdrawals from Current / Cash credit / Overdraft accounts and ATMs effective January 31, 2017 and February 01, 2017 respectively. However, the limits on cash withdrawal from Savings Bank accounts continued to be in place.

3. In line with the pace of remonetisation, it has now been decided to remove the restrictions on cash withdrawals from Saving Bank accounts (including accounts opened under PMJDY) in a two step process as under:

- i. Effective February 20, 2017, the limits on cash withdrawals from the Savings Bank accounts will be enhanced to ₹ 50,000 per week (from the current limit of ₹ 24,000 per week); and
- ii. Effective March 13, 2017, there will be no limits on cash withdrawals from Savings Bank accounts.

4. Please acknowledge receipt.

Yours faithfully,

(P Vijaya Kumar)
Chief General Manager
